

Introduction

Last Updated: 27 April 2020

Lesson Modules.

(In Progress) Citizen Clinic modules consist of lectures, in-class activities, and homework assignments. These modules will be described, linked, and/or outlined below. Stay tuned for new modules added regularly.

1) Introduction to Public Interest Cybersecurity

New! 2) Ethics and the Citizen Clinic Code of Conduct

3) Old School INFOSEC: Basic (& Some Outdated) Controls

4) Digital Surveillance of Politically Vulnerable Organizations: The Threat Landscape

5) Problem Diagnosis and Reframing

6) Threat Modeling & Bounding Risk Assessments

New! 7) Contextual & Capacity Research

8) Information Gathering

9) Open Source Research Methods, Safety, and Tools

- Virtual Networks, Machines, & Identities
- Manual Searches & Google Hacking
- Automated Tools

10) Security Law and Policy Factors

11) Adversary Persona Development

12) Threat Scenario Development

13) Changing Security Behaviors

14) Social Engineering and Phishing

15) Designing Security Training

16) Psychosocial Resilience

New! 17) Beyond Hacking: Harmful Information (Misinformation and Harassment)

Last update: April 27, 2020